

JAPANESE CANNOT BE NATURALIZED IN THE UNITED STATES

U. S. Supreme Court so Rules in Decision Handed Down Yesterday—Was Handed Down in Case Brought by Takao Ozawa, Applying for Citizenship from Hawaii

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Japanese cannot be naturalized in the United States and cannot become citizens of this country, the supreme court of the United States decided today in the first construction of the federal statutes bearing on the subject. The decision was the first delivered by Justice Sutherland as a member of the court and was handed down in a case brought by Takao Ozawa who in 1914 applied for citizenship in Hawaii.

The ruling is expected to attract wide attention not only in the United States but abroad, notwithstanding the failure of the court to refer to its diplomatic service. The case has long been pending in the supreme court and last term reached the argument point.

No reference is to be found in the decision to the "gentlemen's agreement" under which Japanese immigration has been regulated.

ELECTION AGAIN IN FULL SWING THROUGHT ENGLAND

Churchill is being Harassed by Hecklers in Addresses

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 13.—Election oratory was again in full swing today. Premier Bonar Law, recovered from his indisposition, travelled to Glasgow, where he addressed a meeting tonight. Former Premier Asquith was on the same train to attend a meeting of his constituents at Paisley. Mr. Lloyd George shows undiminished energy in this respect, surpassing all his competitors in campaigning activity. He left Cricklethorpe for Bolton and North England and as his custom, addressed little gatherings on the way.

All the great leaders have long since exhausted anything in the shape of novelty their various advocacies with the possible exception of Winston Churchill, who, having entered the fray at the last moment is still able to infuse the spice of interest in his speeches and he is also perhaps more a victim of hecklers than the other leaders. He was even howled down at Dundee today.

As the campaign nears its end, it is interesting to observe how the labor party has unwittingly provided its opponents with what these opponents consider their best campaign ammunition. Conservatives of varying color, liberal unionists and Asquithian liberals all joined with the greatest gusto in attacking labor for its advocacy of a capital levy and nationalization of industries. The avidity which with all the parties seize upon these points is the measure of apprehension felt on all sides when the campaign as to the high points involved in labor entering the next parliament in strong force, this apprehension having been based on the great successes of labor in recent bye elections.

The labor leaders quickly realized that open advocacy of a capital levy had been a mistake in tactics, which in the opinion of most observers today has lost them an enormous number of votes by frightening the lower middle class who might otherwise vote for labor as the only real alternative to the return of a coalition or a conservative government. Mr. Bonar Law speaking at Glasgow, concentrated at this point and declared that anything which makes the capitalist afraid to employ his capital does the greatest possible injury to trade and therefore increases unemployment.

FAIR TREATMENT WILL BE DEMAND AT CONFERENCE

Pasha Says Wants the Same Rights as Other Governments

(By The Associated Press) LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Nov. 13.—Turkey demands merely that it be dealt with as a government founded as other responsible governments are and that it be allowed to enjoy the same rights as its international relations. This in brief was the statement made today to representatives of the world press by General Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation when asked what Turkey's demand will be in the near east conference.

Ismet also took occasion to deny the reported wholesale atrocities against the Greeks and said there had been an organized effort to satisfy the Turkish nationalists in the eyes of the western world. The Turks, he said, protected women and children in their movement against Smyrna and avoided loss of life as far as possible during their operations. Ismet painted a black picture of the waste and destruction that surrounded the Turkish people at the time of the great war, and maintained that, after signing the treaty of Sevres, they tried to restore their country by pacific means and accepted the allied terms in good faith.

The Greeks, he declared, did not abide by the terms and forced Turkey into a war which developed into a great disaster for the Greeks.

Tried to Prevent War. Turkey, he said, sent ministers to London and attempted to gain a hearing before she began the offensive that resulted so disastrously for Greece and did everything within her power to prevent war.

The little general was smartly dressed in a morning coat and was perfectly at ease. He stood and sat by turns during the conference and frequently joked with the correspondents who he was suffering from a heavy cold and apparently exhausted by the ten day trip from Ankara.

Ismet refused to say whether or not he will go to Paris while awaiting the opening of the conference.

He declared Turkey had signed the Mudanya armistice in good faith but that it had been broken two days later by Greek forces who destroyed a Turkish village of 400 houses. The Turkish people refused to recognize the present sultan as their temporal ruler. Ismet told the correspondents because he engaged in politics, thwarted their ambitions for better government and forfeited their respect.

Consequently the Ankara government recognized the present sultan only as Caliph, or religious head of the Moslem world. "To the Moslem world, the caliph is not so much a person as he is a concept, or ideal," the general explained.

BELIEVES COURT ACTION IS FINAL

(By The Associated Press) OLYMPIA, Washington, Nov. 13.—The decision of the United States supreme court today holding Japanese ineligible for naturalization was viewed by Attorney General L. L. Thompson, who argued the case of Charles Kino against the secretary of state before the high as the final settlement of the long controversy in which some scientists and Japanese attempts to show that the Japanese are of the same origin as the Caucasian race.

"It will take an act of congress to amend the present statute before Japanese can be classified with free white persons and those of African descent as eligible for naturalization," said the attorney general.

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 14.—William Heter, motorman for the Springfield Railway company, is dead today from wounds received when he was held up by two men who stopped his street car and robbed him of several dollars in small change. WILL DISCUSS PLANS TO PAY SOLDIER BONUS

Delegation from State Headquarters in Springfield field Today

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 13.—A delegation of American Legion officials from State Headquarters at Bloomington is expected here tomorrow to discuss plans for paying the soldier bonus voted on at the November 7 election. Adjutant General Carlos E. Black announced today.

Definite plans for paying the ex-service men the 50 cents a day for each day of service allotted by the law will not be made public until sufficient returns have been received by Secretary of State Emmerson to determine whether the act passed, General Black said.

Up to today 59 counties had made their returns on the bonus proposition. These give the proposition a majority of 73,000. The adjutant general's office here is receiving many applications for information, but all that can be given these applicants at present is a blank on which they can fill out their record of service, General Black said.

Many fine questions have arisen over construction of the law which must be determined by the service recognition board, and some of which may be referred to Attorney General Brundage for legal opinion.

KIDNAPING OF MISSIONARY BY BANDITS PROTESTED

American Minister to China Protests to General Wu Pei Fu

(By The Associated Press) BULLETIN. SHANGHAI, Nov. 13.—H. E. Ledger, member of the Chinese inland mission at Shanghai, who was kidnapped by bandit forces of Honan, Oct. 28, has been rescued at Lowang in Honan province according to a message received today from Yencheng. The message gave no details of the rescue.

PEKING, Nov. 13.—Jacob Gould Schurman, American minister to China today protested in person to General Wu Pei Fu, military power behind the recent kidnapping of an American missionary by Honan bandits. The American held with him Swedish, two French and two British subjects is Anton M. Lundeen, of Newman Grove, Nebraska.

General Wu promised to assist in obtaining the release of the captives. The American consul at Hankow has reported to Mr. Schurman that the bandits are now seeking ransoms for their prisoners but are holding them while they demand recognition of the military ranks of their chiefs and pay as regular soldiers of the Chinese army. Another missionary named Foreberg was kidnapped with Lundeen.

Foreberg is a native of Sweden but had lived in the United States and this gave rise to the report that two American missionaries were being held by the bandits.

REPLY IS MADE BY COSGRAVE TO U. S. CABLEGRAMS

Says Will Not be Hampered by Consideration of Individuals

(By The Associated Press) DUBLIN, Nov. 13.—President Cosgrave, thru the free state publicity department issued a statement replying to cablegrams from members of the American association for recognition of Irish Republic. His statement said:

"Returning last evening with General Mulcahy from a tour of the Dublin hospitals where soldiers of the army of Ireland, wounded and mutilated by the guns and mines of the irregulars are being tended, I found messages from the American association for recognition of the Irish republic awaiting me.

"My mind went back to the scenes of suffering, I had just witnessed, bravely and uncomplainingly for Ireland and my thoughts also turned toward the thoughts in Glasnevin where many more of our soldiers with President Griffith and Michael Collins. Those deaths and sufferings and the daily toll of further deaths and sufferings are direct consequences of the doings of people who formerly were and still claim to be political leaders.

"We on whom the Irish people have placed the responsibility of asserting their authority will not allow the discharge of that duty to the nation to be hampered by consideration of any individuals be they who they may."

A message addressed to Mr. Cosgrave on Nov. 8 by Michael Kelly organization developer, protested against the detention in Mount Joy prison, Dublin, of Miss Mary McSwiney, who is on hunger strike.

"Millions of Americans will hold you responsible for the murder of Mary MacSwiney, if she dies," said the message.

POSTPONE SUIT OF MISS GOLDMAN

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Desire of the government to question additional witnesses today caused the postponement until Nov. 20 of a change of venue of the Harrison narcotic act against Miss Lillian Goldman, 20 of Rockford, Ill., under United States Commissioner Glass had discharged her mother, wife of David Goldman, owner of an army goods store in this city and Edward Baruch, the family chauffeur.

All three originally were charged with the same offense following their arrest at a local garage November 8. Police claimed they found packages of narcotics and hypodermic needles in their automobile.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL NOT APPEAR IN WHITE TRIAL

Kansas Official on Honeymoon Says He Will Not Prosecute

(By The Associated Press) EMPORIA, Kans., Nov. 13.—Attorney General Hopkins of Kansas has written County Attorney Roland Boynton, Lyon county that the attorney general's office will not participate in the trial of William Allen White, Emporia editor, for putting up in a window of his newspaper a poster expressing 50 percent sympathy for striking railway workers during the shopmen's strike it was learned today.

White was arrested and charged with violation of the industrial court act. The attorney general who has gone on a wedding trip declares that he did not bring action and will not prosecute, he is said to have told mutual friends he did not believe there was any law for conviction of White under the facts.

But White demands trial and is depending on his friend, Governor Allen who brought about the arrest to give him an opportunity to test his point in the courts. When a letter from the attorney general was shown to White he said:

"I don't blame Hopkins. A man on his wedding trip can't be bothered by sending people to jail. The attorney general's letter is surprising but no one knows anything of Governor Allen's fighting spirit can believe for a minute he will quit in this case until it has been tried and appealed to the highest possible court. Any other course would look like a shameful frameup for publicity that would damn us both out of public life.

"Here is the point that has never been decided by the American courts:

"Is it picketing for an outsider in an industrial controversy to express a decent temperate position on one side or other in strike. I claim this right of expression by utterance, by word or press or placard is a fundamental right. I defy the governor's order to test that right and to show my absolute good faith I took down my placard after the arrest and advised all the merchants in Kansas to take down their placards while the case was pending in the courts so that as good citizens we might obey the law while awaiting the orderly process of the law.

"It is unthinkable that this case should be continued or dismissed. The facts are indisputable. It is merely a question of law. It is an important question. If I am arrested and not tried I have been merely killed."

SELECTION OF JURY IN HERRIN SLAYINGS BEGUN

Three Had Been Tentatively Accepted When Court Adjourned

(By The Associated Press) MARION, Ill., Nov. 13.—Three jurors had been accepted tentatively in the case of five men charged with murder in connection with the Herring mine killings last June when court adjourned today after scores of veniremen were questioned and excused during the day.

All of the three prospective jurors are farmers. They are: Oscar S. Wanner, 50 years old, living near Cartersville; James Weaver, 56, residing near Crab Orchard and Henry Riddle, 32, of Corinth.

Riddle formerly was a coal miner. The three men declared themselves in favor of the death penalty, which it was indicated, the prosecution would demand for those on trial. The men said they favored legal execution if there were sufficient evidence.

The state was forced to use five of its 100 preemptions challenges while the defense used one of its 100 challenges. State Attorney Duty, representing the state, and Former County Judge Rufus Neeley, representing the defense are deciding the complexion of the jury, which is to try Otis Clark, Bert Grace, Peter Miller, Joseph Carnagi and Teva Mann for the death of Howard Hoffman of Huntington, Ind., one of the 25 persons who died as a result of the riots at the Lester strip mine.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE SUIT COMES UP FOR TRIAL TODAY

Announcement is Made by Supreme District Attorney Clyne After Conference with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace—Would Restrain Bill Regulating Futures Dealings

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The Chicago Board of Trade's bill to restrain enforcement of the Capper-Tincher bill regulating trading in grain futures will be heard in the United States district court and not in the supreme district court Attorney Clyne announced today after he had held a long distance telephone conversation with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

The case, set for hearing today before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, was continued until tomorrow to give counsel for both sides the opportunity to select the trial court.

In the bulk of evidence said to have been prepared by the Chicago Board of Trade on one side and the American Farm Bureau Federation on the other will be affidavits from professors of political economy and farmers both attacking and defending the act.

Fourteen affidavits by college professors were filed today by Henry S. Robbins attorney for the board of trade, all of which upheld dealings in futures declaring it tended to stabilize the market and seldom resulted in hardships to the producer.

The board of trade seeks an injunction on the ground that the Capper-Tincher bill gives unwarranted power to the secretary of agriculture and that it attempts to regulate an interstate commerce a rate that is interstate.

It excepts from the affidavits filed by Irving Fisher, professor of political economy at Yale; Jas. M. Boyle, professor of rural economy at Cornell; and Thomas K. Carver, professor of political economy at Harvard, representative of the remainder follow:

"It is my opinion," Professor Fisher's affidavit read, "that sudden or unreasonable fluctuations in prices of grain do not frequently occur as the result of speculation, manipulation or control of prices in transactions in future trading upon such changes and that such fluctuations as do occur in prices in such future trading are not usually detrimental to producers or consumers. Consequently future trading has had a market tendency to stabilize the market prices."

The affidavit of Professor Boyle, formerly with the United States department of agriculture and a participant in the investigations into futures conducted by the bureau of markets and the federal trade commission at the trial of President Wilson stated in part:

"I am of the opinion that said prices, both cash and future are—that the charters show them to be—the result of the national operation of the law of supply and demand and are not to any material extent affected by the manipulation or control of those engaged in future trading."

POLITICS DIVIDES ENGLISH HOUSES

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 13.—Thousands of houses in Great Britain are divided among themselves when it comes to politics. In many places particularly in the manufacturing towns in the midlands and north a large proportion of the houses display pictures now, is provided for in the budget bureau's preliminary survey estimate for the next fiscal year sent today to the house appropriations sub-committee which will begin the work of framing the 1923 supply bill tomorrow.

Members of the committee indicated today that the figure would be accepted since the house had insisted on it last winter after a thorough investigation of navy department needs. With the committee in accord they predicted the bill would be put through the house in December without a fight.

BUDGET PROVIDES FOR 86,000 MEN

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—An enlisted force of 86,000, the same now, is provided for in the budget bureau's preliminary survey estimate for the next fiscal year sent today to the house appropriations sub-committee which will begin the work of framing the 1923 supply bill tomorrow.

Members of the committee indicated today that the figure would be accepted since the house had insisted on it last winter after a thorough investigation of navy department needs. With the committee in accord they predicted the bill would be put through the house in December without a fight.

PENNSYLVANIA LEADS IN HEADS OF COMMITTEES

Tops all States on Big House Committees in New Congress

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Pennsylvania with seven, will top all the states in big house committee heads in the new congress until the seniority rule is abrogated. There are sixty standing committees but some or none have little to do with important legislation. The seven important chairmanships Pennsylvania is expected to have are:

Banking, foreign affairs, judiciary, naval, postoffice and printing, a gain of two.

Iowa will have four—all big committees. They are: ways and means, all powerful of itself; roads, agriculture and insular affairs, also Chairman Towner of the latter could relinquish control there to take education, lost to Ohio thru the shift of Representative Fees to the senate. Illinois will retain appropriations, the biggest committee of the house and rules will pass from Kansas to New York.

In the present house, with a solid delegation, Ohio has the chairmanship of only one big committee—education. Ohio members insist the old seniority system ought not to keep them out of honors they claim as their due.

The far west will hold on to several important committees including immigration, labor, military and territories.

Minnesota lost the heads of judiciary and postoffice holding on in pensions and the northwest is beginning to clamor for greater representation. Some of the committees were shot to pieces. The committee on expositions and industrial arts looks as if a cyclone had struck it—eight of ten Republicans being off after March 4.

Indiana will get the chairmanship of census, which must frame the bill for house reapportionment. The steering committee which shapes legislation consists of seven members two of whom will not come back. Green of Vermont was elected to the senate and Dunn of New York did not run. The others who holdover are Darrow, Pennsylvania, Longworth, Ohio; Sanders, Indiana; Anderson, Minnesota and Nolan, California.

Two committees may be abolished. One is woman suffrage and the other is control of the liquor traffic. Members say the night as well be wiped out. As chairman of the committee on committees which picks members for the hundreds of pieces, Representative Mann of Illinois the veteran of any legislative battles occupied a position of power greater than that of any other man, shaping the organization of the next house.

COURT REFUSES REVIEW OF CASE

Washington, Nov. 13.—Review of a case which the Standard Oil company sought to bring against James R. Henry, challenging its constitutionality of the Indian oil inspection law of 1901 was refused today by the supreme court. The state courts of Indiana held the law was valid.

A THOUGHT

The Lord preserveth the simple; I was brought low, and he helped me.—Psalm 116:6.

A consciousness of the whole is the sign of a sound mind; and there is nothing more to be desired at the present moment.—Plato.

It figures go to prove anything business is decidedly on an upgrade in this part of the country. One day recently the Chicago post office transacted the largest amount of business in any one day of its history. Stamps were sold to the value of $215,721 and the money orders paid that day represented the transfer in cash of $1,471,000. At holiday time the business of the office always runs to high figures but the totals here quoted have never before been equaled.

The Tariff Commission will begin hearings at once on petition before it for changes in rates, according to the elastic provision of the tariff law. Some business are asking for a lowering of rates, while others are urging an increase. About 50 petitions have been filed, the wool schedule and the hosiery industry being among the more important affected. Never before has a tariff act contained the means for making it conform to changes as they occur in the relative cost of production at home and abroad. The provisions in the present law makes for efficiency.

Senator McCormick has written a letter urging that a change he made in rules relating to committee seniority in the senate. Coming from such a source, the suggestion indicates a definite movement to change the rules and certainly there is ground for such action. Now membership on important committees is determined by the number of years of service.

It does not follow because a senator is oldest in point of service that he is best qualified for the more important committee appointments. The rule is only one of a number which those who think in a progressive way believe should be changed.

Victor Bergen of Milwaukee is among congressmen elect and it remains to be seen whether the Socialist leader will be permitted to serve in Washington. He has been ousted a time or two in past years and is seemingly steadfast in his principles and not a bit sensitive to public opinion.

The Red Cross annual roll call is under way and groups of workers will canvass Jacksonville with the purpose of again securing membership funds and also the cooperation and interest that comes from membership. No one can question the breadth and efficacy of Red Cross work. In the war time the organization had particular opportunity to evidence its greatness. It met the need at a time when that need was the greatest.

The peace time program, especially in its relation to ex-service men, has shown that there is Red Cross work at home. Persons familiar with the record of the Morgan county chapter know that hundreds of ex-service men have been aided during the year and that practical help has also been extended in many cases to the families of soldiers.

THE ELECTION AND THE MARKETS

The Bache review in the current issue suggests that the reduction of the Republican majority in Congress may have a sobering influence with good results and still this financial paper senses danger:

"Soberly considering the results of the election upon business and securities, the question is how far will constructive legislation in the future be aided, or, on the other hand, to what extent will radical movements be allowed to materialize into disturbing legislation, after the new Congress takes its seat. For one thing, the reduction in the Republican majority in the House should have a sobering effect upon the remnant still left in power there, and should lead to sane conduct.

On the other hand, the disturbing feature in the result is the preponderance of the farm bloc, which will come into greater power in the new Congress.

The national legislative outlook is not bullish and this eventually will have its effect upon securities.

But in the meantime the impressive strength of the business upswing and the very great reserves of money and credit, furnish bases for a continuing upward movement in prices for both goods and securities, for some time to come."

SUPER-CROOKS

(NEA)

William Allan Pinkerton, famed detective, says criminals of today are mentally far inferior to the old-time master minds of crime.

Pinkerton's explanation is that the clever crook has turned to bootlegging, which among crooks is considered as approaching respectability.

A bootlegger's customers, to whom he sells stolen or doctored hooch, are more pleasant to deal with than the lower grade fences, who buy the loot of conventional robberies.

Another reason why so few men of intelligence are found among modern criminals is because the wise ones have realized that the mental resourcefulness, necessary for a successful criminal career, usually pays better when applied to legitimate pursuits.

The man who invented the first gold brick, for instance, was a high type of scientific salesman, who it probably never occurred to him that a man who could sell brass for gold could sell almost anything, even snow at the north pole.

What the modern criminal lacks in intelligence, compared with the crooks of a generation ago, he generally makes up in a willingness to commit murder without hesitation, says Pinkerton.

The old-time crook usually shot only as a last resort. Today every city has a breed of crooks who will kill as quickly and indifferently as the fictional, bad man of early days in the west.

Murder and a crook's willingness to "bump off" his victim have become the foremost criminal problems.

In the old days when a footpad usually used a blackjack or a piece of lead pipe, his victim had a chance. Today the pistol has taken the place of blackjack and lead pipe.

The average modern crook is a coward unless he has a pistol and cocaine or some other drug to create in him the false courage

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Aftermath

By Bertan Braley

NOW the orators are silenced, now the bands have ceased to play. Fool election bets are settled, campaign banners neatly furled. We've forgotten half the issues which we thought would "shake the world."

Ended is the tense excitement which had held us in its thrall. Though it really didn't matter very greatly, after all.

MANY who were in are ousted, many who were out, are in; And the office-seekers cluster round the candidates who win. Prophets spend the time explaining why their prophecies were wrong.

And their words are quite unheeded by the highly heedless throng.

Talk of fake and fraud is muttered as the losers vent their gall. But it really doesn't matter very greatly, after all.

MAYBE some election platforms will be carried out, in part; Maybe we shall solve some problems with a little skill and art.

Maybe taxes will grow lighter and the cost of living sag. But I rather think the public still will hold the well-known bag.

This political campaigning is a sport that comes with fall. But it really doesn't matter very greatly, after all.

necessary to make him use his

Control of the drug traffic and an absolute prohibition of pistols are necessary before crime can be restrained on a big scale. Make it impossible for crooks to get pistols and drugs, and crime news will become dull.

YATES HEARD IN ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Congressman Came to Aeroplane Rather Than Disappoint Jacksonville Audience—Paid Tribute to Country's Glorious History in Armistice Day Address.

"Where there is a will there is a way." This was demonstrated Sunday afternoon both by the committee in charge of the Armistice Day observance and Congressman Richard Yates, who was the speaker of the day, when it was found impossible for Congressman Yates to drive to Jacksonville because of muddy roads. When the congressman agreed to come by aeroplane if a plane was sent, the committee quickly completed the arrangements. A plane belonging to the Robertson Co. was sent to the capital city and the journey was made.

Congressman Yates entered the auditorium of the high school about 5:30. The big audience had awaited for him an hour and a half. However, the intervening time had been profitably spent. There were short talks by Rev. W. H. Marbach, Rev. G. H. McKinney, and Rev. T. H. Smith. The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. T. H. Tull and splendid music was furnished by Mr. Arnold Lovejoy and a chorus of 100 voices from Illinois college and the high school.

R. Y. Rowe as representative of the American Legion had been called upon for remarks and was just beginning when Congressman Yates entered the room.

"The Meaning of Armistice Day" was Congressman Yates' theme and with the time sympathy that always characterizes his private and public utterances Congressman Yates launched upon a discussion of this theme. It was a patriotic preaching from the lips of one whose patriotism is of the undying, undaunted kind.

The committee was certainly fortunate in the choice of the speaker for this occasion and the eloquent address made the day memorable for all in the great audience.

The summarized paragraphs are given: What a glorious roll is the roll which can be called by an American! I love to call that glorious roll.

Bunker Hill, Long Island, Brandy Wine, Valley Forge, Saratoga, Eutaw Springs and Yorktown—in the days of George Washington and Thomas Jefferson, of Betsy Ross and Molly Pitcher, of Nathan Hale and Francis Marion, of Deborah Sampson and the Widow Motté—in other words, the Revolution.

And Winfield Scott at Lundy's Lane and Commodore M'Donough on Lake Champlain and Commodore Perry on Lake Erie and old Andrew Jackson behind the cotton bales of New Orleans! There is a story that old Andrew Jackson fought that battle down there behind the cotton bales of New Orleans after peace was declared with England. He had got ready to whip the red-coat foe, and "by the eternal's" he was going to do it, and by the eternal's he did it, with two thousand squelchers, from Tennessee and Kentucky. Brave old Andrew Jackson, we pass him on our way here today.

And Palo Alto and Resaca, and Buena Vista and Monterey, and Chapultepec and Old Mexico—what are they—why, only the names of comparatively little fights. In that war in which thirty thousand American boys went out and whipped a Mexican Nation of eight million; they are all gone today, those thirty thousand boys, but we do not forget them.

Valor of Old Soldiers
And Donelson and Shiloh and Vicksburg and Gettysburg and Atlanta and the March to the sea! Do you know what I think? I think that the valor of Americans at Donelson and Shiloh and Vicksburg and Gettysburg, on both sides, yes on both sides, was such, and made such an impression on the whole world, that it kept the kings and the emperors and the sultans and the czars and the Mikados off of us for fifty years, 1862 to 1917—that is what the old Grand Army did.

And we must not forget George Dewey at Manila and Sampson and Schley at San Diego and the Marines at Juanatama—eight hundred American Marines fighting off twenty thousand Spanish veterans—and the boys at San Juan Hill.

There you have it! Bunker Hill to Juan Hill! Yes, Bunker Hill to Malvern Hill and Malvern Hill to San Juan Hill. I have called a glorious roll which thanks be to God, nobody can call but an American. Oh boys and girls! Oh young men and maidens! Study well and remember well that glorious roll.

And today there are other names to be added for we have not only Bunker Hill and Malvern Hill and San Juan Hill but we have Dead Man's Hill and Hill Two Hundred and Four and the Heights of Verdun and the Hill of Grand Pre and of course the Mouse Argonne and the St. Mihiel Salient and Cantigny and Chateau Thierry and Belleau Woods.

Tells of Visit to France
Fellow Citizens, I had an unforgettable month in France behind and with the army and an unforgettable two weeks with the navy coming and going. Be not alarmed; I will not try to describe the war, and to deal in dates and names of places in France is beyond me; and indeed would be repetition of things that many other men have told you during the Red Cross drives and Liberty Loan drives.

However, I cannot refrain from mentioning a few of the vivid impressions which I brought back with me.

The deepest and most lasting impression was the courage and fortitude of our soldiers in the various drives and attacks. The sight of the things the American boys overcame for example in the march of eight hundred thousand men north thru the Meuse Argonne, up to the very gates to Sedan and up to the very hour of the Armistice, will forever and ever cause the hearts of Americans to throb and thrill with pride and admiration.

The second lasting impression was that we got there just in time.

Americans have a way of doing this. Washington crossed the Delaware just in time. In the Civil war the Monitor met the Merrimac just in time. In the Spanish War the Oregon got to Santiago just in time. And the American Expeditionary Force got to France just in time. I do not claim that the Americans did all the winning of the war; but I do claim that the war would not have been won without the Americans.

Show Resentment

The third impression I got was that the French people and the British army and navy had accumulated a decided resentment. I do not venture to severely criticize either. Imagine how America would feel if we, for example, had been fighting an invasion by the Japs; and had had scattered thru our land, for four and a half years, over a million men, and sometimes over two million men from Great Britain. The nervous strain would be almost at the breaking point. And I think I can partially understand the resentment which tired and worn out British Tommy (and Sailor Man) may have felt, upon the arrival of the great tide and flood of American youth—all confidence and certainly, all shouting. LET'S GO—although I do think they were mighty glad to have us arrive and might have unbent enough to say so.

A part of the impression was that we now have very few friends among the fighting nations of the world.

Another lasting impression related to this was that from now on we must take care of ourselves.

No King, no Emperor, no Sultan, no Czar and no Mikado is praying for us.

Future Rests With Legion

In conclusion let me say a word to the young members of the legion and the other organizations here today. In your hands rests the future of this land. In ten years nearly every seat in Congress will be occupied by your comrades. You will then be thoroughly organized and every Governor will be from out your ranks. The mines and mills, the farms and the fields, the factories and the foundries, the railroads and the banks will be manned and managed by you. Your opportunity will be great. Your obligation will be great. You should prepare. And you should prepare in every way; be prepared for war and be prepared for peace. In all your preparation remember, that brave men and women have gone before you. And be prepared for criticism.

And to you my countrymen, who may do the criticizing—I hope, you will not cry "Militarism."

Do you cry "Militarism"? I reply, you insult the matchless volunteer soldiers of America, when you declare that the American soldier is a dangerous quantity. The American volunteer of today is simply the splendid New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, California, and Illinois boy in the uniform of his beloved country, with the image of Washington, Jackson and Grant in his soul, and with the flag of the Union folded over his honest heart. He loves liberty. He will never limit it. His historic and heroic valor will add to the glory of that beautiful banner of the star-spangled flag, long after your fire in the rear will have been forgotten.

World War Men Not Oppressors

It is as culpable as it is absurd to give praise to the soldier of the past, and to condemn the soldier of the present. It is wrong to credit the soldier of Bunker Hill, of Lundy's Lane, of Buena Vista, and of Chickamauga, with heroic patriotism, and to suspect the heroes of St. Mihiel and of the Meuse Argonne of being possible oppressors. This is all wrong, because it does infinite injustice to loyal young hearts. It is as infinitely unjust as were the old time false accusations heartlessly directed at the soldiers of the revolution, of the war of 1812, of the Mexican war, and of the Civil war. It will in turn cause the death of noble Americans yet unborn.

Now she has filed suit against the institute for $100,000 declaring that because of the picture her husband, wealthy New York broker, left her.

Oh my countrymen, how beautiful is this occasion; but how vital, to forget not what it was all for; it was for the heir of the ages, the child of the centuries, the beacon light of Liberty, the last hope of humanity "OUR COUNTRY."

FUNERALS

Henry.
The funeral services were conducted from the Young Blood Baptist church, her life long church home, and the Rev. William R. Johnson delivered a funeral sermon that was most helpful to those who are left behind, and paid the highest compliment to the life of the deceased, when he related her church, home and community relations, and the assembly of relatives, friends and neighbors attested the love and esteem in which she was held.

The grand daughters, Ada Story, Ruth Radford and Altha Scott, acted as flower girls, and Warren Fanning, Gussie Henry, Leonard Dutton, C. E. Edwards, Charles R. Henry and Oliver P. Steele acted as pall bearers.

HOMECOMING AT LITERBERRY CHURCH

Unfavorable weather conditions interfered quite a great deal with the homecoming program planned for Sunday at the Literberry Baptist church. The attendance was not large and the program as announced was not carried out.

At noon a splendid dinner was served by a committee including Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. A. Dunlap and Mrs. J. A. Liter. The sermon in the afternoon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Ben Johnson. Special guests of the day were Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson of Winchester.

LON CHANEY

The Man of a Thousand Faces—The ablest character actor on the screen, famous for his portrayals in "The Miracle Man," assisted by Edith Roberts, Jack Mulhall, Ralph Lewis, Wilfred Lucas, Dewitt Jennings, Kate Price, Toga Yamamoto, in

"Flesh and Blood"

He escaped for vengeance—returned defeated but happy. "Greater Love Hath No Man."

It is an inspired performance in a story throbbing with human emotions. The pathos of this buffeted creature—this pitiful figure who is hunted by the law for a crime of which he is innocent will be caught by every spectator—no matter whether he is endowed with sentiment or not. You see him break jail and your sympathy is acute. Will he make a successful get-away? But the eager eye of the law is on his track. And to avoid detection, he is forced to play the part of a helpless cripple—a part which stamps Chaney as a superb artist. He stumps through Chinatown, ever careful to avoid arrest, though fully determined to look upon the fair beauty of his daughter—a girl he cannot even touch, much less admit his relationship with her. He finds his enemy, but at the moment that he triumphs, he is brought up sharp with the fact that his daughter loves the financier's son. Rather than bring any disillusionment to her he forgives his enemy and calmly returns to prison.

Oats that cook in five minutes

Quaker Oats now come in two styles, the Instant and the regular.

Instant Quaker, perfected by our experts, is the quickest cooking oats in the world. It cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes.

Both have that matchless flavor which has made Quaker Oats supreme. Both are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats.

But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly.

Tell your grocer which you want. If Instant Quaker, look for "Instant" on the label.

NURSING OFFERS GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Plan Outlined to Combine Passavant Training Course With College Work.

Thirty years ago there were two distinct fields for the trained nurse, viz: the hospital matron, and private duty. The former included supervision of almost every department of any public institution, the latter service was done in homes. Then nursing meant incessant work, little recreation, and little opportunity to advance.

The trained nurse of today finds opportunity for education and travel, and can be of service in no less than thirty special branches of the work. All countries have need of the well trained nurse.

To fill the positions now open to nurses makes it necessary for them to have a higher type of education in nursing than before. Passavant hospital now furnishes the facilities for such an education, and we invite the public as well as those contemplating entering the nursing to give us the opportunity to explain our educational program.

The School is Accredited by the State Department of Registration and Education, and is also registered in the State of New York.

The January class will be limited to fifteen students. The officers hope to co-operate with a local college for a part of the work. Students will live in the Nichols Nurses Home, which was a gift to the school. The course of study is three years, and practically free from expense.

Full information may be obtained by applying to the Superintendent of nurses, Passavant Hospital, Jacksonville, Ill.

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright in Heaven's jewelled crown
They shine forever more.

There is no death! The leaves may fall
And flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait through wintry hours
The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread.
He hears our best loved things away
And then we call them "death."

He leave our hearts all desolate;
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers,
Translated into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

Born unto that undying life,
They leave us but to come again,
With joy we welcome them the same,
Except their sin and pain.

And ever near us, tho' unseen;
The dear immortal spirits tread
For all the boundless universe,
Is life—there are no dead.
Lord Lytton.

Friends Never Saw Jackson Look Better

"Here's hoping my experience will help the other fellow," said Lyman Jackson, 4626 Prairie Ave., Chicago, Ill., as he gave out the following statement regarding the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac.

"Before taking Tanlac I was so run down that my day's work would leave me almost completely exhausted. My stomach was all upset and I had a bad spell of indigestion every time I ventured to eat anything. Headaches and nervousness troubled me all during the day and kept me awake hours every night.

"My stomach is in apple-pie order now and the nervousness and headaches are entirely gone. I have gained ten pounds and don't only feel fine, but my friends say they never have seen me looking better. Tanlac is simply great."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

SPANISH CLUB WILL SEEK NEW MEMBERS

Illinois college Organization Holds Second Meeting of Year with Ellsworth Scott Monday Night.

The Spanish club of Illinois college held its second meeting of the school year Monday evening at the home of Ellsworth Scott, 823 North Church street. Roll call was answered with Spanish jokes. During the brief business meeting which followed it was decided to initiate a campaign to interest the second year Spanish students in the social and linguistic opportunities presented by the club. The programs and informal conversation of the club are largely in Spanish, combining practice with pleasure. The meetings are held every two weeks, with an especially enjoyable entertainment every spring for the first year students.

The program this week was introduced by an oration, "La Reine Madre de America," by W. A. Scott. Then followed the features of the evening, a debate in Spanish on the subject, "Resolved: That the Spanish Language is Easier to Pronounce Than English." The affirmative was defended by Russel Pinkerton and Miss Ruth Mallonee, and the negative was upheld by Paul Gard and Lillian Swift. The judges, Miss Strong, W. A. Scott and Miss Margaret Johnson, returned a two to one verdict for the affirmative.

RAINFALL DOES

Monday was a very gloomy day and business was very quiet. However, people generally were not depressed by these conditions, for the rain has been needed for months. This area has been experiencing a real drought with the result that for many weeks past hundreds of wells have been dry, and streams with water in them are rare indeed. A customary sight on farms has been men hauling water for stock. Several months ago the stopped running and very few creeks or branches have had water in them until the downpour of Sunday and Monday.

The rain came in a way to do the most good and farmers were rejoicing yesterday over the bettered conditions which have resulted.

PURE BRED HOGS LEAD ON AMERICAN FARMS

According to a recent tabulation of statistics issued by the Department of Agriculture, the pure bred hog leads all other animals on the American farm. The report shows that all breeds including the pure bred swine number 2,049,881 as compared to 1,800,912 pure bred beef and dairy cattle. There are a half million pure bred sheep and nearly a quarter of a million pure bred horses. The total pure bred live stock of all kinds on American farms number a little less than 5,000,000 head and represents a little over three per cent of all farm stock animals in the country.

The Department of Agriculture, following a survey made on 25,000 farms, has announced that the use of pure bred sires alone in the breeding herd made an increase in the market value of the offspring of 38.6 per cent. This increase was brought about by the production of a superior animal which requires no more feed or labor. Commenting on this report Fred L. Obenchain, secretary of the National Spotted Poland China Record has issued a bulletin in which is found the following statement:

"The dream of former generations was to make two blades of grass grow where but one had grown. Agriculture is now concerned in making that same feed produce one and one half pounds of meat where only one was produced before. The farmer who produces a live stock under this scale will get a $1 a bushel for his corn instead of 65 cents and 50 cents for his oats instead of 35 cents. Yet with this prospect of profit only three per cent of all hogs and five per cent of all cattle are pure bred and only one farmer in ten has even a pure bred sire on his farm."

It is estimated that the value of all live stock last year was three billion dollars, a calculation is easy that if all meat producing live stock was pure bred the production would be more than double. This would be accomplished without a cent more of expense for feed and labor. With the farmer sold on the idea of marketing his crop on the hoof rather than on a wagon, in the hide rather than in the bag, it remains only for the farmer to obtain the best farm animal, the pure bred, to reach the maximum returns from his live stock industry.

Part of Building Will be Leased to Rothchild Clothing Factory — Phone Company May Lay Conduit on Morgan Street.

The city council at a brief session held Monday night authorized the leasing of a part of the old light plant building to the Rothchild Clothing company. The rental will be $40 per month.

When City Clerk Scott called the roll it was found that Mayor Crabtree and all the aldermen except Alderman Ehnle were present. Routine business was quickly transacted. A petition was presented from the Illinois Telephone company, asking authority to lay a conduit from West Morgan street from a point near the Home sanitarium to Prairie street. This matter was referred to the highway committee, the city engineer and the street commissioner.

At the suggestion of the clerk preparations were made for the destruction of the ballots cast in the last city election. Chief of Police Kiloran and Superintendent W. H. Cobb were delegated to witness the destruction.

George Nunes a resident of East Independence avenue, made inquiry concerning certain stretches of sidewalks that are greatly needed on East Independence avenue, Myrtle street and Hooker street. This matter was referred to the sidewalk committee of which Alderman Sorrells is chairman.

The council then adjourned.

PALMER HUNT ILL FROM INFECTED ARM

Palmer Hunt, whose illness was so much regretted by high school football fans, is at Passavant hospital. Hunt is suffering from an infection in the arm and is quite ill, altho his physicians, Dr. C. E. Black and Dr. A. M. King, do not consider his condition as serious.

GREAT PIANIST HEARD IN CONCERT

The return engagement of M. Maurice Dumesnil, the charming French pianist in music hall at the Woman's college yesterday evening was the occasion of much enthusiasm. Many artists please audiences but few there be that present such overwhelming arguments in their favor that a "return engagement" is insisted upon by the public. However, M. Dumesnil succeeded in securing rare recognition and yesterday evening he played to friends who a year ago were strangers.

Long before the hour for the opening of the program the hall was completely filled with an expectant audience and the burst of enthusiasm upon his appearance gave evidence of the warmth of his welcome.

The program itself was of interest for its unusual quality. The selections were not those of the ordinary recital programs. The masterful transcription of the Badi prelude and Fugue by More provided a splendid vehicle for the proof of M. Dumesnil's musicianship. This noble work and its fine interpretation was a revelation of technique in its brightest sense; for technique is never an end when used by an artist but it is a servant that obeys every whim of the master.

The first group contained, in addition to the Badi number, two numbers from the old school of masters; Rameau Gavotte and a hunting song by Scharlatti transcribed by himself, and the seldom played Spirato and Polonaise by Chopin. Many players essay the one or the other but few play the numbers as a whole.

After the second program group the Sonata in b sharp by Chopin Dumesnil added the waltz op 70 No. 1.

Before the third group M. Dumesnil seated himself at the piano and very informally made the audience acquainted with the atmospheres of the three very sympathetic words about them. After the close of the program he added a transcription of a Viennese number by Kreisler and a "Liebestraum" by Liszt.

To single out super perfection and such a galaxy of perfection as M. Dumesnil presents for consideration would seem preposterous. His clear playing and consummate phrasing his speed and power combined with delicacy and sweetness were apparent to all but one wonders how many ambitious players there were present who noticed how from much of his playing was from the use of the damper pedal.

Fred Faugust went to Springfield on business Monday.

WHITE HALL P. M. HAS RESIGNED

John E. Wyatt Tenders Resignation to Become Effective Thursday—Successor Is Not Known at This Time.

White Hall, Nov. 13.—John E. Wyatt today tendered his resignation as postmaster of White Hall to take effect Thursday.

The action of Mr. Wyatt was entirely unexpected as he had given no intimation of his intention. Mr. Wyatt was appointed by Woodrow Wilson to the position.

There is much speculation among citizens of the city as to who will succeed Mr. Wyatt as no examination has been held for the position. It is probable that the assistant postmaster will be placed in charge of the office until an appointment is made.

RAIN ON WINDSHIELD CAUSED ACCIDENT

Oscar Weider, Edgmon street, suffered minor bruises when at 6 o'clock Monday morning at the corner of Main street and the square he was struck by a bus of Mrs. A. J. Patrick's line, driven by William Guthrie. Heavy rain and mist on the windshield prevented Guthrie from seeing Weider. He stopped almost immediately after the collision.

When called by the Journal Mr. Weider was inclined to minimize the injuries received. His injuries were attended by Dr. J. L. Day at his office and he went home for the day.

Tickets for "THE CLIMAX" to be given here Friday night under the A. A. U. W. AUSPICES can be reserved at Brown's Music store.

CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY AT WHITE HALL

Immense Throng at Armistice Day Celebration and Laying of Memorial Library Cornerstone—Other White Hall News.

WHITE HALL, Nov. 13.—There was an immense gathering of people in connection with the Armistice Day celebration and the laying of the cornerstone of the Whiteside-Griswold memorial library Saturday. Capt. Dean Cora presided and delivered an address of some length along educational and patriotic lines, and was followed by a scholarly address by William Russell of Bluffdale. Then came the laying of the cornerstone, the mortar being spread by Seth N. Griswold, donor of the structure. The principal speaker was Rev. Arthur Frederick Evert of Chicago.

In the course of his remarks Chairman Cora stated that Dr. A. W. Foreman is the only surviving member of the original library board organized in 1876. The copper box in the cornerstone, he stated, contained the following:

Mayor H. W. Roodhouse's proclamation.

Copy of White Hall Register-Republican of November 3, 1922, containing a historical account of the White Hall library movement from its inception in 1876. Document giving a complete history of the philanthropic enterprises of Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Griswold to date.

Copy of the old White Hall Republican of April 19, 1917, containing a life history and of journalistic career of the late Capt. E. J. Pearce, and a copy of the concluding issue of that publication of January 19, 1917, when it merged with the Register.

Roll of honor of the soldier dead of Northern Greene county, including a roster of the G. A. R. and the American Legion posts of Roodhouse and White Hall, containing a roll of all soldiers graves from the Revolutionary war to date, a most exhaustive production, issued by Messrs. Sykes & Fanning.

Greene county roll of honor of world war veterans.

Copy of J. M. Beverly's reminiscences of the 91st Illinois Infantry, civil war.

Copy of "The Story of the Common Soldier," by Judge Leander Stillwell, based on his connection with the 61st Illinois Infantry, civil war.

Copy of Illustrated White Hall souvenir, 1911.

Dinner was served in the K. of P. hall by the ladies' auxiliary, of which Mrs. Francis Piper is president, and this and tag sales replenished the exchequer of the Legion post to the extent of $281.

A parade opened the afternoon program under the direction of C. F. Wemken, post commander, headed by the magnificent color standards of the post and the K. of P. band. There were some prize awards by H. W. Roodhouse, T. M. English and E. C. Pearce, constituting a court of awards, and they awarded four $5.00 prizes as follows:

Playgrounds float by the Woman's club.

"Let Us Forget," a school float prepared by the senior class of the high school, showing the grave of a soldier, caused the removal of hats all along the line of march.

The individual award went to Mrs. Mame Winters on a sedan chair that won universal approval. It was carried by Messrs. Stanley Thomas and William White, and contained Miss Hallie Gahuly and Master Edward Giller, Jr.

The award for the most comic turnout went to the Royal Neighbors.

Other floats were by the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist Sunday school, the Royal Neighbors and the Rebekahs.

News Notes.

The chorus of the White Hall Music club under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Brown, has been rehearsing for the coming next Wednesday of Mrs. Gaston of Alton, who is to address the session of the Woman's club at 2:30 in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Gaston is a former secretary of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, and the local officers feel that her coming is an important engagement that warrants the appearance of the chorus. Mrs. Gaston's subject is announced to be "Sugar and Spice and Everything Nice."

The new time card on the C. & A. effective next Sunday, makes no change whatever on the line through White Hall, and the promise of a mid-day service to and from St. Louis, so much desired by the local dairy interests, will not materialize. The E. O. D. service on the C. & A. line between Eldred and Carlinville is retained on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Nos. 14 and 15, will continue to operate between Bloomington and Roodhouse on the present schedule, but as stated this run will not be restored on south to St. Louis. Nos. 70 and 71 are restored through Jacksonville on the former schedule, leaving Roodhouse at 5:55 a. m. and returning to Roodhouse at 8:10 p. m. The morning Springfield train will leave Roodhouse at 6:20 a. m. and return at 11:50 p. m., this being the only service over the air line. Nos. 211 and 212 restored between Louisville and South Cedar City, after being off for several years. The changes all around are comparatively slight. The west bound Hummer leaves Kansas City 7:45 a. m. and arrives Chicago 7:55 p. m. and the east bound Hummer leaves Kansas City 5:55 p. m. and arrives Chicago 7:25 a. m., passing Roodhouse about as at present.

NO CLUE TO ROBBERS OF PATTERSON MAN

Identity of Men Who Robbed Jasper Wilkinson Near Patterson Saturday Night Remains a Mystery.

WHITE HALL, Nov. 13.—Up to this morning no tangible clue had been obtained as to the identity of the two masked robbers who entered the home of Jasper Wilkinson, ten miles northwest of White Hall Saturday evening, and secured $300 or more in money. The intruders exhibited familiarity with the premises. They entered the house as Mr. Wilkinson and his aged housekeeper were reading and demanded money. Denial that there was money on the place caused the pair to bind the two occupants of the house and they went to Mr. Wilkinson's room and helped themselves to the currency.

Mr. Wilkinson thinks the robbery occurred about 8 o'clock in the evening. It was an hour later when he succeeded in extricating himself, but he had to walk nearly a mile to his nearest neighbor when he discovered that his telephone line had been put out of commission, and it was late before officers were working on the case. Henry Sherwin, driving along the road about eight o'clock, passed a party driving a Ford car, and this gives rise to the opinion that the car used was one stolen at White Hall between 7 and 8 o'clock, and which belonged to Fred Gibler. Mr. Wilkinson is about 65 years of age.

Brunswick

Why the Brunswick Phonograph is what it is—

While we rely entirely on the inherent merit of the BRUNSWICK to prove its own case, as it has always done—yet, it is a source of great satisfaction to occasionally reflect on the wonderful organization and resources back of it which has not only been responsible for the present unique position of esteem in which the instrument is universally held, but which also furnishes us and our clientele of BRUNSWICK owners with the satisfying assurance that the BRUNSWICK will always be the most desired of all phonographs.

A few facts concerning the Manufacturers of the Brunswick Phonograph.

They are capitalized for $56,000,000.00.

- have branch offices in twenty-five cities in the United States, five in Canada, one in France, one in Cuba and one in South America.
- operate their own timber lands in Northern Michigan.
- make every part of the BRUNSWICK Phonograph in its entirety.
- are the only phonograph manufacturers in the United States, and we think, the only one in the world, that actually does this.
- have at the present time seven factories devoted to the manufacture of phonographs and parts, and two factories to the pressing of records.
- cut their own veneer logs and slice their own veneer.
- manufacture their own panels and are just completing a plant to manufacture shipping cases for their phonographs.

Ponder over these facts and you will readily discover the reason of our enthusiasm for Brunswick Phonographs and Records.

HEAR, THEN COMPARE

The way to fully appreciate the superiority of The Brunswick is to hear it, then make comparison. Your ear will quickly decide in favor of The Brunswick.

Schaefer Defeats German Billiardist

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Jake Schaefer, San Francisco, defeated Erich Hagelacher, Germany, by the score of 500 to 328 in the first match of the international 18.2 balkline professional billiard championship at the Hotel Pennsylvania tonight. The winner's average was 29 7-17 and his high runs 140, 72 and 56. The German's average was 19 5-17, with runs of 105, 44 and 36.

Schaefer made a bold start. He went to the lead with his 140 run in his fourth inning. After that he lapsed into seemingly careless execution missing no less than four times. Hagelacher was slow toward the end although he displayed skill at draw shots and the masse.

Welker Cochran the Iowan and Roger Conti, the French champion, meet tomorrow at 2:30 P. M. In the night Willie Hoppe of New York meets Edouard Horemans, the Belgian champion.

Erich Hagelacher, champion of Germany, won the bank in the first match of the international 18.2 balk line billiard tournament at the Hotel Pennsylvania tonight. He opened his string with a pretty two cushion carom. Holding the ivory at the foot of the table he counted by clever use of the draw shot and English. At 15 he had shot across the face of the balls that separated them. He solved a spread by a fine shot on the rail and then retired after 17 by a miss on a short two cushion carom.

"Jake" Schaefer had a widely spread leave to face. He attempted a long two cushion gathering shot, but failed to connect with the second object ball so that his first contribution was a zero. Hagelacher's second turn at the table produced a brilliant cluster of 105. It was practically all compiled on the short rail and was remarkable for astonishing masse shots that effected the 53rd, 86th and 89th counts, respectively.

The first was a daring masse kiss to solve a lineup on the cushion. So cleverly the German timed the flight of the ball that the cue ball caught the red as it rebounded from the side rail. Each of the other masses were played to overcome difficult freezes. At the end Hagelacher retired because of a faulty two cushion carom the width of the table.

Schaefer followed with a run of 51 widely and cleverly played. It was an interesting contribution as it indicated the mastery of the champion's execution.

Schaefer went to the lead in the fourth inning with a massive run of 140. At this stage he led the German by a total of 235 to 125. It represented an average of 58 1/2 for half the match. In compiling this big run Schaefer operated almost exclusively at the foot of the table. He rolled the spheres gently along the end rail and along in the eighties held them for a brief bit of nursing on the line at the right hand side of the table. It was definiteness of touch and mastery of control with the high spot a wonderful draw to the cushion for the 106th count. On this shot Schaefer bumped the red out of the way before taking the rail and completing the carom on the white. He had the globes nicely bunched when he miscued and had to retire.

The sixth inning in which the young wizard counted 72 before failing to solve a lineup with a long kiss carom was remarkable for the closeness of Schaefer's ball-to-ball billiards. He consistently favored the head of the table and at the completion of this run the champion had distanced his overseas rival, as the total tally stood at 309 to 162.

The billiards sank to mediocrity as the players neared the end of their string. Lacking pressure Schaefer miscued on three occasions when he appeared to have excellent chances. As for Hagelacher he became over-studious and a bit tedious. Likewise he fell into the miscuing habit and twice he failed to get the balls out of balk. Hagelacher also rolled into innumerable freezes that sent him fighting the spheres instead of assuming control.

Schaefer turned into the final hundred with a run of 56. He breezily began this cluster rapidly by collecting the caroms by the rail system. The orbs became a trifle rebellious and he solved a lineup by a finely managed bank shot. It resulted in a freeze and from that on the run was a chapter of catastrophes until he failed on an attempted kiss which the cue ball bashfully refused to make because of lack of legs. At the end of this round, Schaefer led his rival despite little show of his real class.

The summary:
Jake Schaefer, spot ball:
0 51 44 140 2 72 27 0 3 24 13 56 2 27 24—Total 500.
Average 29 7-17; high runs 140, 72 and 56.
Erich Hagelacher, white ball:
17 105 2 125 12 10 32 29 16 44 4 0 4 0—Total 328.
Average 19 5-17; high runs 105, 44 and 36.

KNOX COLLEGE TO MAKE EASTERN TRIP

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 13.—Athletic authorities at Knox College announced today the completed schedule for the eastern tour of the basketball team. This will be the second trip of this kind for the Knox team it having toured the east last winter, winning four out of seven games played.

"Bud" Saunders, former Grinnell coach has been appointed head basketball coach and will start practice immediately following the present football season. With Captain Campbell, center, and Albino, star forward and a promising bunch of team material the new coach has much to work on.

The schedule is as follows:
January 3—Dartmouth.
January 4—University of Vermont.
January 6—Williams College.
January 9—Harvard.
January 10—Navy.
January 13—Army.
The team will leave here December 31.

RICKEY GIVES REASONS FOR TEAM'S FLOP

"What was the cause of the failure of the St. Louis Cardinals to make a better showing in the National League?"

Recently that question was put to Manager Branch Rickey of that team.

"Lack of pitching," was the immediate reply.

"The lack of pitching," continued Rickey, "was brought about by the absolute collapse of Willie Doak."

"Last year and the year before, when Doak started a ball game I figured the chances of winning the game were greatly in our favor."

"On past performances I figured on Doak to be the ace of the Cardinals' pitching staff in 1922. Doak appeared to have his usual stuff last season, but he simply couldn't win."

"When the ace of your pitching staff goes wrong, you have suffered a real wallop. If our pitching had held up I feel sure we would have won the pennant."

There you have the inside dope on the collapse of the Cardinals when they seemed all set for the pennant.

M'MILLAN BEST GUARD, YOST SAYS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 13.—James McMillan guard on the Illinois football team is the best guard in the big ten football conference according to a statement made by Fielding H. Yost, Michigan coach, following the Illinois-Wisconsin game it became known here today.

McMillan played a guard on the 1921 Illini team. He has made a great impression on Illini football followers this season as the result of his work against Iowa, Michigan, Northwestern and Wisconsin.

McMillan weighs close to 200 pounds. His home is in Greys Lake, Illinois.

PARIS WILL CONSIDER BARRING PRIZE FIGHTING

PARIS, (U. P.)—A motion picture of the French of Police to bar boxing forever from Parisian rings has been introduced and will come up for discussion in the Paris Municipal Council. Alderman Luquet is sponsor for the measure and among his arguments in favor of his proposed by-law is the following:

"Why should a duel with fists be permitted when duels with swords or pistols are forbidden?"

Mr. Luquet kindly refrains from adding that many boxing matches held in Paris lately have caused more damage to the participants than the majority of the duels. Carpentier had ten chances to one of coming thru a duel with pistols unscathed. A little prick from the tip of a disinfected sword would have caused the referee to call the fight, in the event of a meeting on the field of honor.

Another point which Mr. Luquet makes is that the school children of Paris, owing to the publicity given to pugilistic encounters, all imagine that when they reach twenty years of age they will be champions of France and Navarre, with the result that they are devoting more time to flattening the noses and cauliflowering the ears of their comrades than to the study of the classics or modern sciences.

THIEF GETS CHICKENS

Four chickens were missing Sunday morning after a night raid on the premises of C. E. Williams, 412 South Main street. The fowls were of the Buff Orpington variety.

Notes from the Big Ten Camps

Illinois
Champaign, Ill., Nov. 13.—The Illini football team was given a hard workout this afternoon in preparation for the contest with Chicago Saturday. Preparations are being made to stop the offensive work of Thomas and Zorn of the Maroons. Woodward, Hill and Clark will retain their positions in the downstate back field.

Wisconsin
Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.—Rain slowed up the University of Wisconsin's football team's preparation for the game with Michigan Saturday, but despite the confined practice, the Badgers went thru a hard session. The Wolverines will meet a better team than the one that went down to defeat before Illinois. All of the Badgers are in good condition for the game.

Michigan
Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 13.—Closer cover that has marked any of Michigan's previous football practice was maintained today when the squad went to work for its tilt with Wisconsin Saturday. Newspapermen had been admitted to the daily workouts up to today but none but players will get thru the gates this week, it was announced.

The Wolverines are expecting Wisconsin to come to Ann Arbor for a measure of her revenge for their last week's defeat and the local squad will be conditioned accordingly.

Much of this week's drill will be spent in developing line material and in perfecting a defense for Wisconsin's scoring tricks. All of the Wolverine regulars are in excellent physical condition.

TOUGH LUCK NO BARRIER FOR ROCKNE

By NEA Service.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 13.—The loss of one of more star football players means nothing in the life of Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame. His team goes on winning just the same.

Last year his football squad lost a dozen regulars either thru graduation or having them declared ineligible because of professionalism. That was quite a blow.

In one of the early games this fall his star tackle, Tom Lieb, suffered a broken leg, putting him out for the rest of the season.

The latest tough break for Rockne is the loss of his whirlwind halfback Gus Desch. Rockne has declared that Desch is thru for the season.

Desch, who is captain of the Notre Dame track team and a harder of Olympic caliber, injured his heel some time ago. The bruise continues very painful and refuses to respond to treatment. Rest seems to be the only cure and Rockne has decided to save Desch for track work rather than use him on the gridiron.

CENTRE WORTHY FOE FOR HARVARD

Even if Centre college is shunted off the Harvard schedule next year the little southern institution feels that it has established a record against the Crimson that will stand for a long time.

Centre has met Harvard for three consecutive years on the Harvard field. Centre won one game and lost two, but in each game managed to cross the Harvard goal line.

In 1920 Centre was beaten, 39 to 14, after holding Harvard on even terms until near the close of the game, when lack of reserve turned the tide of victory to Harvard.

Centre's great showing in that game led to a return engagement. In its second chance at Harvard Centre emerged the victor by the scant margin of 6 to 0. "Bo" McMillan made the winning touchdown.

This year after getting a bad break in the opening period, when Harvard scored three times, Centre outplayed the Crimson the rest of the game, losing 24 to 10. Few colleges in three consecutive meetings on the Harvard field can claim one victory and the crossing of the Harvard line one or more times in each game. It is a record of which little Centre may well feel proud.

Frank Struby of Sinclair made a trip to the city yesterday and spent the day with friends.

ILLINOIS PREPARES FOR WESLEYAN GAME

All of the Men Came Thru Eureka Game in Fine Condition—Game Will Be Annual Homecoming for Illinois Alumni.

All of the men who played against Eureka last Saturday were on the football field last evening in tip top physical condition, getting ready for the Wesleyan game next Saturday. The battle against the Eureka team on the muddy field, with all of the accompanying rain and cold wind, does not seem to have affected any of the players. They went about their preparation for the Wesleyan game with a grim determination which shows that the players realize they have a task on their hands to defeat the Green and White team from Bloomington.

Saturday's game will be the homecoming game for Illinois college alumni and former students. Meetings of the various college societies on Friday night, a parade on Saturday morning, the game at 2:30 p. m., Saturday afternoon a homecoming dance in the gymnasium on Saturday night and a six o'clock dinner on Saturday evening for the "I" club are some of the attractions for the homecoming.

That the game will be a close and hard fought one seems certain. Early in the season Wesleyan defeated Eureka at Bloomington in a fierce contest by the score of 16 to 3. Last Saturday Illinois College trounced Eureka on the Eureka field in a sea of mud and water by 12 to 0. Take your choice men. It promises to be some game.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—Sailor Friedman of Chicago stopped "K. O." Laughlin of Bethlehem, Pa., in the fourth round of their scheduled eight round bout tonight. Laughlin had become a punching bag for Friedman when the referee stopped the bout. The men are welterweights.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

STOCK MARKET HAS

IRREGULAR SESSION

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Stock prices saw-sawed up and down in today's market reflecting, in general, the covering and selling operations of short interests who appeared to be in complete control. Final prices were generally below those of Saturday, but the strength of the resistance encountered at today's lower levels indicated that the decline had about run its course at least temporarily.

Bearish sentiment has developed on the unfavorable outlook in Turkey for the possibility of unfavorable tax legislation by the next congress and the apparent inability of bull operators to attract an outside following.

Some stocks were depressed for special reasons. Marine preferred which broke more than four points, was sold freely on speculative belief that the administration would not be able to put over its ship subsidy program.

Credible Steel dropped nearly 3 points on publication of the annual report which showed a deficit of nearly $5,500,000 after payment of dividends for the year ended August 31st last.

Other steels were weak in sympathy.

Changes in rail shares were mixed but mostly downward.
Losses of a point or more took place in Erie second preferred, Great Northern preferred and Nickel Plate, but Reading, Chicago
& Northwestern made slight gains. Canadian Pacific failed to respond to the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent yielding fractionally below Saturday's close.

Some of the outstanding weak spots were Brooklyn Edison, Detroit Edison, Liggett and Meyers,
Nash Motors, National Biscuit,
Lorillard Tobacco and Goodrich preferred, the loss ranging from 2½ to 13 points. Woolworth was strong, gaining 5 points.

Total sales were 1,014,000 shares.

Call money opened and held at 5 per cent. Business in the time money market was confined mostly to renewals which were arranged at five per cent. The bulk of the commercial paper is moving at 4½ per cent. An improved tone was noted in the foreign exchange market. The Italian rate moved up from 416 to 470 in response to the accumulation by governmental agencies on the strength of the improved political conditions in that country.

Importers and banks were heavy buyers on sterling, the demand rate touching 147½, a new movement.

U. S. bonds yielded with the rest the losses ranging from 6 to 24 cents on $100. The New and Fourth 4½s were the largest losers.

Total bond sales (par value) were $14,893,000.

Next Sunday will be "Five Hundred" in the school year. Former high attendance marks expect to be surpassed.

Sunday at Centenary

Centenary Church observed Sunday as a triple holiday—Armistice Sunday, Home coming and Every-Member Canvass were combined and the day was really a great day.

In spite of the rain, the auditorium was comfortably filled when the hour for the morning service arrived. The quartet rendered a program of appropriate music, and the pastor spoke to the Go-to-Church club on "Making the Flag," illustrating the theme by a slight-of-hand experiment in which the separate colors were combined to form the flag.
Dr. E. L. Fletcher, superintendent of Jacksonville District and formerly pastor of the church, delivered the main address. He spoke eloquently from the theme "The Torn Curtain." Some of the veils which prevent a full conception of God were described and then the speaker showed how these veils are torn aside by the Christ.
Following the address, Dr. Fletcher, assisted by the canvass committee raised a good portion of the budget of the church for the current year. The canvass could not be completed owing to the absence of some, but a start was made which assures the speedy subscription of the entire amount. The Sunday morning canvass will be followed up by a personal canvass of those not present, and those in charge expect that the whole sum will be pledged by next Sunday.

Have your Red Cross membership dollar ready for the solicitor or bring to Red Cross headquarters, Public Library building.
